

COWS 2023 Fall Workshop

Artist: David Rankin (davidrankinwatercolors@gmail.com; www.clevelandartistregistry.org/artists/david-rankin)

My travel and explorations of India, over many return trips, has exposed me to very exotic subjects, an extraordinary range of colors, and very challenging drawing and painting situations. I had to gradually evolve and upgrade my sketching and drawing skills coupled with my use of transparent watercolor. And this evolution of my core skills now allows me to work effectively anywhere the world. Transparent watercolor on rough papers is at the very bedrock of my creative process.

In this workshop I will work with artists on a variety of subjects, each of which requires use of several very traditional watercolor skills. Each subject is designed precisely to help artists master their own skills as watercolor painters. Everything looks better in Watercolor©.
