1.b.) Member Accomplishments:

Gail Evans has an exhibit of her paintings at the First Community Church, at Cambridge and First Aves. in Marble Cliff, from October (now) through November.

Fran Mangino was honored to be asked to be one of the demo artist at the prestigious Florida Watercolor Society Convention on Sept. 23, 2016. The convention consisted of three workshops, two days of one hour demos in two different rooms. The convention room was filled of manufacturers selling discounted supplies up to 50%, artist representing supplies demoed and free gifts handed out. There were ticket sales for gifts and auctions for paintings from a Paint Around of 6 Master Level artist. Ted Nuttal was the juror for the FWS Exhibition and gave Fran an award 8th out of 20 awards which was worth $1250. Money was also raised by the juror and other wksp instructors by either critiquing artist personal work, critiquing exhibition or advise on entering exhibitions. What was really impressive at the banquet was the master level artist asked first time artist to the convention to sit with them as a welcoming into the organization.

Fran also received the Richeson's Award and got it into the Travel Show for her painting in OWS.

Jim Oberst has a 1-man exhibit of about 30 paintings at Somedays Bistro, 101 Mill Street, Gahanna until January 7, 2017. His reception is scheduled for Wednesday, November 16, from 6 to 9 pm. Stop by any time to enjoy the artwork, food, and wine.

Vivian Ripley is pleased to announce an Honorable Mention award in the Ohio Plein Air Society Members' Show at the Springfield Art Museum (October 1, 2016 - February 4, 2017).

Vivian Ripley reminds you to go see her show, Autumn in Central Ohio, at Argo and Lehne Jewelers (3100 Tremont Road, Upper Arlington, immediately north of the intersection of Tremont and Zollinger)), through November. There are 16 works in watercolor, acrylic, and pastel. The exhibit extends through November, and includes 16 of Vivian's works in watercolor, acrylic, and pastel, with a theme of "Autumn in Central Ohio". All of the works are for sale. Argo and Lehne hours are Monday-Friday, 10:00 AM- 7:00 PM, and Saturday, 10:00 AM- 5:00 PM

Thanksgiving Harvest (Three-Week Series)

SATURDAYS, NOVEMBER 5, 12 & 19, 1–3PM

November 5: Apples - This class will focus on the watercolor technique of "negative shape." We will have apples in a still life for live study, as well as prints to help with the composition and drawing. We will be using the background shapes first and painting the apples last. Beginner class; optional advance material.

November 12: Pears - A continuation of still life painting with attention to "soft edge versus hard edge" and allowing the volume to create a 3-D look to your work. Pear still life and prints of pears will be available. This class includes some drawing lessons. Beginner class; optional advance material.

November 19: Pumpkins and Gourds - Focus on the techniques of textures. The lumps and bumps of gourds with their stripes and cylinder shapes challenges the painter in this last session of the "Thanksgiving Harvest." Prints will be provided and help with drawing the composition. Beginner class; optional advance material.

Art supplies included in the fee for one day students. Art supply list available for those who sign up for the full three weeks. No prior experience is necessary.
