Letter From the President

Dear Painters,

I can hardly believe how fast the summer has gone. Charlie Rowland's workshop at the art museum was a huge success. The class was full and the museum is thrilled. They want to plan more classes with us. Charlie is also working on gathering nominations for next year's officers. If you want to volunteer to run for an office, suggest another member for an office and/or help Charlie on the committee, please let Charlie know. CWRowland@aol.com

Kevin Buckland and his committee are working very hard on the fall show and art summit. We are very excited that Jim Keny has agreed to be our juror.
